

The U.S. government needs your current address to assist you on your path to permanent residency in America.

We recommend ensuring your address is current with the U.S. government by following the steps below. You need to follow these steps every time you change your address while living in the United States. Keeping your address up to date helps to avoid issues with your immigration case.

How to Complete the Change of Address Form

STEP 1:

Visit <https://egov.uscis.gov/coa/displayCOAForm.do>

STEP 2: Select YES or NO

Select YES if you have submitted an immigration related application to the U.S. government. After you click Yes, a form will open, and you can enter your Form Number, Form Sub Type, Receipt Number and Zip Code from your application confirmation (see "Form I-797C Notice of Action" below).

Have you filed an immigration-related application or petition and your case is pending a decision or you have not received a notice, card, or document?

YES NO

Select Form Number from the list of possible options.

Select Form Sub Type (Name of Application) and the list will give you all the possible options for the form

Enter your Receipt Number here. Omit dashes ("-") when entering a receipt number. However, you can include all other characters, including asterisks ("*"), if they are listed on your notice.

Enter the Zip Code you used to file displayed on your form I-797C receipt

Form I-797C Notice of Action

You should have received Form I-797C from the U.S government as confirmation that you have submitted an application. This form will contain some information you may need to fill out the Case Information section in Step 2.

This box contains your receipt number which consists of three letters. For example: EAC, WAC, LIN, SRC, NBC, MSC or IOE-and 10 numbers.

This box will be the address they have on file for you and will contain your zip code.

Example:
Ahmad Khan
545 Hemming St. Apt 5
Fairfax, VA 20190

This is a Zip code.

This box contains the Application Form Number and Name.

After you complete the Case Information section or if you selected YES and your form is not listed, select NO instead, and proceed to STEP 3 to fill out the change of address form.

Continue to STEP 3...

STEP 3: Fill out the form in English

Please note: Every field with an asterisk (*) must have an answer filled in the box.

In the boxes from left to right, provide: Your first name (First Name), middle name (Middle Name), and last name (Last Name). Use the exact name that is listed on your U.S. government documentation or mail you have received from the U.S. government.

List your Date of Birth in this format: Month/Day/Year

Your A-Number is short for an alien registration number and is how the U.S. government identifies you. This field is optional. If you have not been issued a number, you can continue filling out the form without providing one. You can find this number on an employment authorization card, I-94, receipt notice (see example below), or green card. It is a 7- to 9-digit number starting with A.

Your Old Address is the location that you are moving from in the United States. This address is where you have received mail from the U.S. government.

Your New Address is the location that you are moving to in the United States.
